SPCA Tampa Bay is an open admissions shelter. We accept the surrender of every owned pet. Once surrendered, we will make every effort to place your pet into a new home. However, we cannot guarantee that your pet will be adoptable due to a variety of factors, such as the pet's health and temperament. As such, please be aware that your pet may be humanely euthanized.

The SPCA of Tampa Bay is not government funded, thus relies on the charitable support of the community. Your donations are appreciated!
